Saturday

Jordan stayed undefeated in district by beating Paetow 12-6 with a big effort at the plate, with Caden Hoff driving in four runs and hitting a home run to lead the way. Thomas Eugate started on the mound and went four innings, allowing three runs on nine hits while striking out one. Jordan improved to 10-5 overall and 3-0 in district with the win.

Bobby Richardson drove in a run in the top of the first to give Jordan the lead and Cole Keppler doubled that lead in the third on a RBI single. Paetow got one run back in the third on a Yarel Delgado RBI single, but Jordan answered back as Hoff hit a three run home run in the fourth.

Adniel Quiles-Torres got another run back for Paetow in the bottom of the inning, with the Panthers trimming the lead to two on a fielders choice, but Jordan scored seven more runs in the fifth. Paetow scored three runs on an error in the bottom of the sixth to make it 12-6 but that was as close as it got before Paetow closed out the game to win.

Delgado and Adniel Quiles-Torres had Paetow's two RBIs in the game. Elijah Chisam started on the mound for the Panthers and went three innings, allowing five earned runs on three hits while walking eight and striking out two. Paetow fell to 15-4 overall and 4-1 in district with the loss.

Cinco earned its first district win in a huge effort, coming from behind against Tompkins, while Taylor and Paetow stayed perfect in district with wins on Thursday.

Cinco comes from behind to beat Tompkins

Cinco Ranch earned its first district win in a thriller, beating Tompkins 10-9 and scoring four runs, including a walk off in the seventh inning to clinch the victory.

Connor Ficarra and Brock DeYoung led the Cougars at the plate, both driving in two runs in the win. Brayden Hodge started the game on the mound for Cinco and pitched 2.1 innings, allowing five runs on four hits while walking three. The Cougars improved to 10-5-3 overall and 1-3 in district with the win.

Tompkins took the lead in the first inning when Gavin Brewer hit a single that drove in two, but Cinco came back to tie it in the bottom of the inning, as Ficarra drove in one on a single and Paul Acosta hit a double to tie it. The Cougars took the lead in the bottom of the second, when Lucas Franco hit a 1-run single and Ficarra followed that up with a double that drove in another. Tompkins came right back to retake the lead in the third though, loading the bases, with Ian Palacios clearing the bases on a 3-run double, the Falcons added another in the fifth inning on a Brayden Foor hit an RBI double.

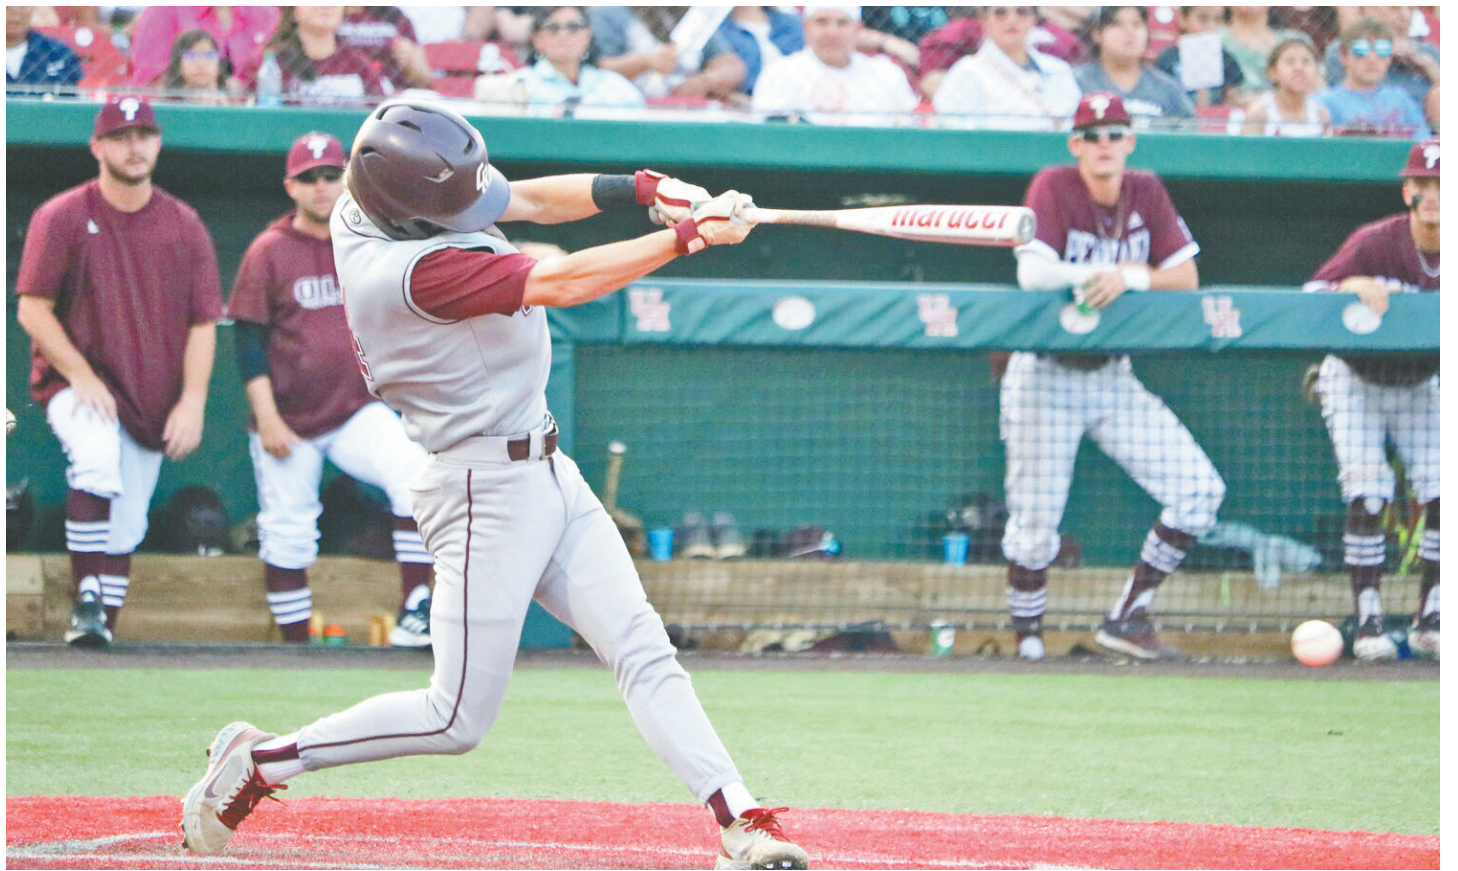

Cinco started to come back in the fifth and trimmed Tompkins lead to one on a Zach Franco sacrifice bunt, but Tompkins answered back in the top of the sixth when Chase Simon hit a sacrifice fly to drive in a run, before Cooper Markle hit an RBI single to make it a three run game. Lucas Franco trimmed the lead back to two in the bottom of the sixth when he hit a sacrifice grounder, but it went back to three runs on a bases loaded walk in the bottom of the sixth.

Cinco Ranch came back to take the win in the seventh. The Cougars got two men on and then scored on an Ethan Muniz single, before DeYoung came up and hit a 2-run double to tie the game before winning it when he came around to score on a wild pitch.

DeYoung became Cinco Ranch's all time hit leader in the game and is on 109 hits through his varsity career.

Palacios led the way offensively for Tompkins with three RBIs while Brewer had two.

Chase Simon took the mound for Tompkins and pitched five innings, allowing four earned runs on nine hits while striking out and walking three. Tompkins fell to 9-10 overall and 1-3 in district play with the loss.

Brock DeYoung hits during Friday's regional semifinal between Cinco Ranch and Pearland at The University of Houston.

Taylor stays perfect with strong win over Seven Lakes

Taylor had another big win on Thursday, beating Seven Lakes 8-1 behind their strongest offensive performance in district thus far.

The Mustangs were led on the mound by Easton Wolf, who pitched 5.2 shutout innings, allowing just four runs while striking out eight and walking three. Pete Dworaczyk, Alex Satterfield and David Harris each had two RBIs. Taylor improved to 13-7-1 and 4-0 in district with the win.

Harris drove in the first runs of the game in the second inning when he hit a single and an error made it 3-0 after three innings. Taylor added two more in the fourth on a single and got a sixth run in the fifth inning on a wild pitch. Satterfield then hit a double in the top of the seventh to make it 8-0, and although Seven Lakes got one run in the bottom of the seventh that was all they could muster.

Riley Sherowski took the mound for Seven Lakes and went three innings, allowing two earned runs on four hits while striking out and walking three. Seven Lakes fell to 9-8-2 overall and 0-2 in district with the loss.

Paetow downs Mayde Creek, stays unbeaten in district

Paetow kept up its perfect start to district play on Thursday with a 16-4 win over Mayde Creek, Hector Millan led the team at the plate with four RBIs, while Yarel Delgado, Maddox Prentice and Adniel Quiles-Torres had two RBIs each. Camden Philips started on the mound for Paetow and pitched five innings, allowing two earned runs and striking out two while walking one.

Paetow got out in front early in the first inning, getting a run on a passed ball and another on a single from Delgado before Prentice hit an RBI single and Quiles-Torres drove in two on another single. Allan Soto kept it going with a another one run single, Paetow got two more on errors, Delgado drove in another on a double and Prentice hit another RBI single to make it 10-0 after one inning.

Mayde Creek got two runs back on an error in the third inning and scored a third when Drew Desormeaux hit a single to drive in a run. Charlie Radley answered back for Paetow, hitting a RBI single before Matthew Scott drove in a run on a single and Millan hit an inside the park grand slam, getting Paetow to 16 runs in the fourth inning. A sacrifice fly was all Mayde Creek could get in the fifth as Paetow secured the win.

Daniel Burgos started on the mound and went .2 innings, allowing eight earned runs on seven hits and walking two. Desormeaux provided the team's lone RBI. Mayde Creek fell to 2-14-1 overall and 0-4 in district with the loss.

Tuesday March 12

Katy and Paetow stayed tied atop the District 19-6A standings with wins on Tuesday, while Tompkins bounced back with its first district win of the season with a strong performance.

Udland shuts out Morton Ranch

Connor Udland had a huge performance on the mound on Tuesday, shutting out Morton Ranch in a 10-0 win for Katy where the Tigers run ruled the Mavericks in five innings. Udland pitched five innings and struck out seven, only walking two and allowing just one hit in the game. At the plate, Ashton Ballew had three RBIs and three runs on two hits, including a home run in the win. Katy improved to 10-7 overall and 3-0 in district play with the win.

Ballew got the scoring started in the top of the first, after hitting a single, Ballew came around to score on a wild pitch, with the Tigers getting another run on a passed ball. Ballew then scored again in the third inning on an error. Katy broke things open in the fifth inning, with Udland starting things off with an RBI single and Katy got a fifth run on a passed ball, Jeremy Mazariegos then singled home another run and Katy got a seventh run on another passed ball. Ballew then stepped to the plate and hit a 3-run home run to increase the lead to double digits. Udland closed the game out with two strikeouts and then a ground out.

Zane Heiliger started on the mound for Morton Ranch and went 4.2 innings, allowing six earned runs on six hits while striking out three and walking two. The Mavericks fell to 6-9-1 overall and 0-3 in district play.

Tompkins holds off Cinco Ranch

Tompkins was able to outlast Cinco Ranch for a 2-1 on Tuesday behind a strong performance on the mound from Hudson Melaerts, who pitched seven innings and allowed just one run on one hit while striking out seven innings and walking two. Nate Piazza and Gavin Brewer had the two RBIs for the Falcons as they improved to 9-9 on the season with a 1-2 district record.

Both of Tompkins' runs came in the third inning. Piazza hit a single to drive in the first and Brewer followed that up with a sacrifice fly, bringing in the second. The game stayed that way until the sixth inning, when Ethan Muniz hit a sacrifice grounder, trimming the Falcons lead to one run. That was all Cinco could manage though as Tompkins held on for the win.

Josh Morelli had a good day on the mound for Cinco, allowing two runs on three hits through six innings while striking out six and walking two. Muniz had the Cougars lone RBI and Luis Gomez had Cinco's only hit as they fell to 9-5-3 overall and 0-3 in district play.

Paetow's offense explodes against Mayde Creek

Paetow had a huge day at the plate in a 17-3 win over Mayde Creek, with Paetow staying perfect in district, improving to 3-0 with a 13-3 overall record on the year. Elijah Chisam earned the win on the mound for Paetow after starting and going 4.1 innings, allowing two runs on three hits while striking out six and walking three, while Matthew Scott led the way at the plate, with four RBIs.

Paetow struck first in the top of the first inning, getting a run on a passed ball, but Mayde Creek came back to take the lead in the bottom of the inning, getting runs on a sacrifice grounder and an RBI single to go up 2-1. Paetow came back to tie the game in the top of the third when Scott hit a one-run single and then took the lead in the fourth inning off an error before another error and a single from Scott brought in two more before the end of the inning.

Paetow kept things going in the fifth. Charlie Radley hit an RBI single and Yarel Delgado drove in two on a pop fly single. Scott then hit a triple to bring in one more before Maddox Prentice hit a single, driving in one to make it 10-2.

Mayde Creek scored one more run on an error in the fifth, but couldn't get any more and Paetow's offense exploded for seven more runs in the seventh to seal the victory.

BJ Lumkins started on the mound and went 3.2 innings for the Rams, allowing no earned runs on three hits while striking out three and walking four. Mayde Creek fell to 2-10-1 overall and 0-3 in district play with the loss.
